

Getting Ready

A polygon is a group of line segments put together in a special way. For example, some of the shapes below are polygons and some are not.

Polygons

Non-Polygons

In order to be a polygon, what properties does a shape need to have? Draw a polygon that is different from the ones above. Then draw a shape that is not a polygon.